Description

The Agriculture Funding Consortium (AFC) is a voluntary body that has no legal standing and is comprised of a number of organizations, each of which is responsible for establishing its own research and innovation priorities and investment mandate. Information on current areas of priority is available from each individual organization or through the following link [2]. The purpose of the AFC is a collaborative one-window approach to coordinate the application, review and funding process for proposed agriculture and food research and innovation projects and stimulate private/public sector participation in Alberta's agriculture and the food industry.

Eligibility

For an application to be considered, the applicant(s) must meet the following eligibility criteria established by the AFC member organizations. The AFC consists of more than a dozen different member groups. The AFC is not a legal entity; therefore, each of the member groups (Funders) have their own distinct terms and conditions. When a LOI is successful, an applicant should be cognizant of the eligibility requirements of their anticipated Funder(s).

Eligible Applicants

The applicant and the project team may be comprised of qualified researchers from the following types of organizations:

- Provincial governments and their public agencies
- Federal government and federal crown corporations
- Non-profit research institutions
- Academic institutions, including universities, colleges, and technical schools
- Industry associations serving the agriculture, food and beverage industry
- Existing or prospective companies and supply chain partners that can increase the value and sales of Alberta products
- Other research institutions, firms or enterprises approved by the members of the AFC.

Eligible Activities

Please consult the research priorities of each funding consortium member which can be found here [2]. Applicants are encouraged to contact funding organizations they consider relevant to their proposed project for feedback prior to submission of the LOI.

Funding from Other Sources (cash and in-kind)

Applicants are encouraged to obtain funding from other sources to supplement the contribution of AFC members. Applicants must be transparent about additional funding requested or obtained from other organizations.

For more information on eligibility criteria, please review the program guidelines [3].

Indirect Costs

TBD.

Special Notes

Confidentiality

For the purpose of co-funding, an applicant's LOI may be disclosed to other agricultural based funding agencies and organizations, with the applicant's submission. If you do not want your LOI disclosed to other potential funders, email info@fundingconsortium.ca. Consent is implied if there is no response. With each LOI submitted, the project title, the applicant, the funding requested, and the 'brief summary for communication' as submitted by the applicant, is considered public information and may be shared with other potential funders.

COVID-19

Please note that research activities carried out in the context of COVID-19 need to adhere to the University of Guelph COVID-19 research principles, policies, guidelines and processes as they may be updated from time to time and communicated on the Office of Research web-page [4].

Deadlines

If College-level review is required, your College will communicate its earlier internal deadlines.
