

Balzan Prize 2024

Sponsor

International Balzan Prize Foundation

Description

Every year, four Balzan Prizes are awarded to scholars and scientists who are distinguished in their fields on an international level. The aim of the Balzan Prize is to foster culture, the sciences and the most outstanding humanitarian initiatives of peace and brotherhood among peoples, regardless of nationality, race or creed.

The subject areas for the 2024 prizes are:

- Restorative Justice
- History of Modern and Contemporary Science
- Biological Mechanisms of Ageing
- Nanoporous materials for environmental applications

Eligibility

The subject areas in which the awards are granted are rotated. No more than four prizes may be awarded in any one year. Self-nominations are not accepted.

Prize

A monetary prize of 750,000 Swiss Franc (approximately CAD $995,550). The winners are each required to allocate half of their prize money to funding research projects carried out preferably by young scholars or scientists in their respective fields.

Deadlines

If College-level review is required, your College will communicate its earlier internal deadlines.

1. We recommend discussing your interest in this award with your College Research Manager and Associate Dean (Research).
2. Complete the Expression of Interest document.
3. Send the completed Expression of Interest document and a CV to ailsakay@uoguelph.ca and copy your College Research Manager by the internal deadline.

As this is an international prize, the University may engage the Global Excellence Initiative to coordinate external review of nominations.

Career interruptions due to parental leave, family care, extended illness or community responsibilities will not negatively impact the committee's assessment of a candidate's research productivity. These will be taken into consideration when EOIs are assessed.

If your nomination will be submitted by a different nominee, and therefore does not require the Vice-President's endorsement, please submit a complete nomination and signed OR-5 to research.services@uoguelph.ca by the external deadline.
