Description

The Banting Medal for Scientific Achievement is the highest scientific award of the American Diabetes Association. Given in memory of Sir Frederick Banting, a medical scientist, doctor and Nobel laureate who is noted as one of the key investigators in the discovery of insulin, the Banting Medal is awarded annually to honor highly meritorious career achievement in the field of diabetes research.

Recipient will deliver the Banting Lecture in person at the 83rd Scientific Sessions in San Diego, CA, June 23–27, 2023. Recipient will also be offered the opportunity to publish their lecture in an American Diabetes Association scientific journal.

Eligibility

- Nominee will have demonstrated highly original, sustained and reproducible scholarship that has made major contributions to the understanding of diabetes, its treatment and/or prevention
- Nominee must have MD, PhD, MD/PhD degree or equivalent.
- Both U.S. and non-U.S. residents are eligible for award.
- Contributions and volunteer service to both national and international diabetes organizations and the broader diabetes community may also be taken into consideration.

Prize

- The recipient receives a $20,000 honorarium.
- Award includes two round-trip coach airfares and hotel accommodations for up to 7-nights and other travel related expenses.
- Includes complimentary registration to Scientific Sessions.
