2019 Research Call and 2019 Technology Transfer Call

For More Information

Beef Cattle Research Council - Call for Letters of Intent [1]

Description

The Beef Cattle Research Council and Alberta Beef Producers invites Letters of Intent (LOIs) for:

1. Research Projects: Priorities include Beef Quality & Food Safety, Feed & Forage Productivity, and research to support Improvements in Productivity.
2. Technology Transfer and Production Economics Projects: The purpose of this targeted call for proposals is to enhance knowledge dissemination and technology transfer in key areas of the Canadian beef industry, including specific technology transfer objectives in the Canadian Beef Research and Technology Transfer Strategy.

The purpose of these two targeted calls is to achieve specific objectives in the Canadian Beef Research and Technology Transfer Strategy [2] and the National Beef Strategy [3]. These calls for research and technology transfer LOIs, expected to occur annually for research and bi-annually for technology transfer and production economics, are made possible by the recent increase in the Canadian Beef Cattle Check-Off in most provinces.

Approved projects, funded by Canadian cattle producers through the Canadian Beef Cattle Check-Off, will be required to use the industry funding to leverage additional funds from government or other funding organizations to fulfill project budgets.

Through extensive consultation with research teams and industry stakeholders to identify critical needs and key areas where the BCRC and ABP can have the greatest impact, target outcomes have been clearly defined for both calls. Please see the attached Guidelines documents for more information on priorities for both calls.
