Brown Bag Lunch on Research Security

Updated Information

New agenda for this month's session!

Date	Location	Notes
Thursday August 1, 2024 12:00pm to 1:00pm	Virtual/Online via Microsoft Teams	Monthly Teams Meeting Link [1]

Description

Research security, also known as safeguarding research, has become increasingly integrated into provincial and federal government funding requirements.

If you are interested in learning more about research security and/or are planning on applying for federal or provincial funding and would like to better understand their research security requirements, then this is a great place to start!

Agenda:

- Introduction to Research Security
- Government Policies/Requirements on Research Security
- Research Security at the University of Guelph
- Q&A - Ask Anything!

These sessions are held on the first Thursday of the month.

Please email Amy Allison at research.security@uoguelph.ca [2] if you would like to connect but are unable to attend the meeting or access the link.
