Background on the Canadian National Wheat Cluster 2018 - 2023 and details about this call for Letters of Intent (LOI) can be found on the Western Grains Research Foundation website. [2]

Description

Funding organizations from across Canada are participating in the development of a Canadian National Wheat Cluster for submission to the next federal Agriculture Policy Framework (APF), the successor to the current Growing Forward 2 programming. The current National Wheat Improvement Program (NWIP), funded by many of these organizations and Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada through the Growing Forward 2 AgriInnovation Program, is a $25.2 million five-year investment into wheat improvement that ends in March 2018. The funding partners wish to build on this successful venture for the next APF and are initiating a Request for Letter of Interest (LOI). The next APF is expected to be accepting funding applications by the summer 2017 and to be fully launched by April 1, 2018.

The Funding Organizations supporting this Request for LOIs include the Alberta Wheat Commission, the Canadian Field Crop Research Alliance (whose members include Grain Farmers of Ontario, Producteurs de grains du Québec, Atlantic Grains Council, and SeCan Association), Ducks Unlimited, Manitoba Wheat and Barley Growers Association, Saskatchewan Wheat Development Commission, Saskatchewan Winter Cereals Development Commission, Western Grains Research Foundation and Winter Cereals Manitoba Inc.

The Funding Organizations have met to discuss the research issues of greatest importance to producers. The eligible research areas defined below are intended to provide researchers with the scope of research that is of interest for the Canadian National Wheat Cluster.

Eligibility

Eligible researchers include those in universities, not-for-profit research institutions, and federal and provincial research organizations.

Indirect Costs

15%

Project Duration

Research funding may be secured for up to five years from April 1, 2018 to March 31, 2023.
