Dorothy Killam Fellowship

Description

The Dorothy Killam Fellowships provide time release to support to scholars (faculty) of exceptional ability who are engaged in research projects of broad significance and widespread interest within the disciplines of the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, health sciences, engineering, or studies linking any of these disciplines.

A Dorothy Killam Fellow is a leading researcher whose superior, ground-breaking, best-in-class research stands to have significant impact on a national or global scale. A Fellow is someone who also reflects some of the Killam attributes:

- Inclusive collaborator
- Barrier breaker
- Research leader

Eligibility

The Dorothy Killam Fellowships support scholars who:

- demonstrate commitment to building Canada's future and alignment with Killam attributes
- are mid-career researchers who usually completed their PhD no more than 15 years prior, though special circumstances may result in applicants being more or less than 15 years post-PhD.
- are employed at a Canadian research institution.

Typically, a Fellowship recipient is a faculty member at a Canadian university with significant teaching and/or administrative responsibilities.

$80,000/year for two years.

Fellowships are intended as release time from teaching and administrative duties. They are awarded to individuals, but the funds are paid to and administered by the Canadian university or research institute that employs them.

You must obtain support for research and laboratory costs from other sources.

Deadlines

If College-level review is required, your College will communicate its earlier internal deadlines.
