

Holberg International Memorial Prize 2023

Sponsor

University of Bergen

Description

The Holberg Prize was established by the Norwegian Parliament in 2003 and is awarded annually to a scholar who has made outstanding contributions to research in the arts and humanities, social sciences, law or theology, either in one of these fields or through interdisciplinary work. The prize winner must have had a decisive influence on international research.

Eligibility

Scholars holding positions at universities and other research institutions, including academies, are entitled to nominate candidates to the Holberg Prize. It is not possible to nominate groups or organizations.

Self-nominations and posthumous nominations are not accepted.

Nominations are strictly confidential and should not be disclosed to the nominee or to others at any time. For information on the nomination process visit the Holberg Prize Nomination Instructions [1].

Prize

The prize amount is 6,000,000 NOK (approximately €600,000 EUR / $670,000 US).

Special Notes

Please note that research activities carried out in the context of COVID-19 need to adhere to the University of Guelph COVID-19 research principles, policies, guidelines and processes as they may be updated from time to time and communicated on the Office of Research web-page [2].

Deadlines

If College-level review is required, your College will communicate its earlier internal deadlines.
