Call for Pilot Studies Addressing Equine Behavior

For More Information

For detailed program information, please visit the Morris Animal Foundation Grants web-page [1].

Description

The Morris Animal Foundation is now accepting proposals for pilot studies addressing equine behavior. This request is part of the Foundation's Donor-Inspired Study Program and this request is being funded by Dr. Wendy Koch, who has supported the Morris Animal Foundation for 30 years.

All investigators are eligible to apply, but studies must be limited to one year in duration and budgets cannot exceed $10,000. Competitive applicants will have a previous record of research and publication in equine behavioral science. Pilot study proposals should be aimed at generating data to prove the viability of a novel approach or idea.

Maximum Project Value

$10,000 USD.

Indirect Costs

TBD.

Project Duration

1 year.

Special Notes

Please note that research activities carried out in the context of COVID-19 need to adhere to the University of Guelph COVID-19 research principles, policies, guidelines and processes as they may be updated from time to time and communicated on the Office of Research web-page [2].
