Description

The Order of Canada is how our country honours people who make extraordinary contributions to the nation.

Since its creation in 1967 (Canada's centennial year), more than 7,000 people from all sectors of society have been invested into the Order. The contributions of these trailblazers are varied, yet they have all enriched the lives of others and made a difference to this country. Their grit and passion inspire us, teach us and show us the way forward. They exemplify the Order's motto: DESIDERANTES MELIOREM PATRIAM ("They desire a better country").

Eligibility

The Order of Canada recognizes people in all sectors of society. You can nominate:

- Any living Canadian for admission into the Order.
- Non-Canadians who have made an extraordinary contribution to Canadian life.
- An existing member of the Order to be promoted to a higher level within the Order. Promotions are only considered five years after the initial appointment.
- A candidate who has been previously considered but not appointed to the Order of Canada. Usually, a new nomination can be submitted five years after the last one was made. Contact Order of Canada if you think this applies to your candidate.
- Please do not notify the candidate about the nomination or initiate a letter-writing campaign.

Prize

This prestigious award is an Order of Canada insignia, which is a stylized snowflake of six points, with a red annulus at its centre bearing a stylized maple leaf circumscribed with the motto of the Order: DESIDERANTES MELIOREM PATRIAM—Latin for "They desire a better country." The annulus is surmounted by the Royal Crown.
