

Research Innovation Office: Ask Us Anything – Intellectual Property 101

Date

Thursday December 15, 2022 12:00pm to 1:00pm

Location

virtual

Description

The Research Innovation Office invites you to explore entrepreneurship with a group of academics, entrepreneurs and mentors with business experience.

Please join us for a virtual discussion of intellectual property options available to maximize the financial potential of your research. Guest: Dr. David Hobson, Manager, Tech Transfer & Entrepreneurship, Research Innovation Office

Who: Specifically targets faculty, graduate students and community members that are early in their entrepreneurial journey.

What: Facilitated 60-minute virtual meet up that spark sharing and discussion around a topic.

Why: Mobilize wisdom and experience gained during entrepreneurial pursuits.

When: Bi-weekly on Thursdays from September to April (summers off).

Call to action: Sign-up for the session on Eventbrite (<https://askusanythingdec15.eventbrite.ca>) — Thursday, December 15, 12-1 pm.

Registrants will be emailed a meeting link prior to the session.

Click here to learn more about this alertAlert Classifications

Workshops and Events

Disciplines:

Health and Life Sciences

Humanities

Information and Communications Technology

Physical Sciences and Engineering

Social Sciences

Research Innovation Office: Ask Us Anything – Intellectual Property 101

Published on Research Alerts (<https://www-research.uoguelph.ca/research/alerts>)

Source

URL: <https://www-research.uoguelph.ca/research/alerts/content/research-innovation-office-ask-us-anything-%E2%80%93-intellectual-property-101>