Description

As we look back and reflect on the last academic year, it is also a useful time to reflect on the past year's research activities at University of Guelph. In the first of what is intended to be regularly interspersed update and Q&A meetings throughout the coming years, Vice-President Research, Malcolm Campbell, invites faculty, research staff, post-doctoral fellows, and graduate students to join him for a virtual university community update.

Discussion topics include:

- Strategic Research Plan 2023-2028 "From Idea to Impact"
- University of Guelph institutional research progress and challenges
- University of Guelph Office of Research activities including personnel matters
- Q&A session
