
Faculty Information Exchange 2015-16: Putting knowledge into action

Date	Location
Wednesday June 8, 2016 12:00pm to 1:00pm	UC 442

Description

Moderated by: Caroline Duvieusart-Déry, Knowledge Mobilization Coordinator, Community Engaged Scholarship Institute

Panelists:

Dr. Jess Haines, Associate Professor, Department of Family Relations and Applied Nutrition
Dr. Emma Allen-Vercoe, Associate Professor, Department of Molecular and Cellular Biology
Dr. Mark Fenske, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology

How can you increase the impact of your research?

The session will offer tips for researchers interested in strengthening their ability to share their knowledge with people who can use it. Presenters will discuss their own experiences designing and implementing knowledge mobilization strategies, as well as advice for submitting grant applications to knowledge translation and transfer (KTT) funding opportunities.

Bring your questions for discussion!

All welcome! Registration is encouraged.
