Description

Important: The University of Guelph may submit only one application for each competition, either on its own or as the lead organization in a consortium. However, there is no limit on the number of applications an organization may be a part of as a non-lead member of a consortium. Please find below a description of the means by which the University will select the one application to be developed for each competition.

[From Farms to Markets in South Sudan \[1\]](#)

DFATD is launching a call for proposals designed to fund projects in South Sudan that will boost food production and support the market participation of smallholder farmers in order to protect livelihoods. Proposed projects should be located in one or more of the following locations: Eastern Equatoria State, Warrap State, Western Bahr el Ghazal State and/or Northern Bahr el Ghazal State.

The total amount of funding available under this call is up to forty million Canadian dollars (CAD $40,000,000).

Based on the availability of funds, DFATD will fund projects valued at between six million dollars (CAD$6,000,000) and eight million dollars (CAD$8,000,000), which will be implemented over a period of up to three years, not including an additional three-month project close-out period.

The external deadline for proposal submissions is August 14, 2015, at 3 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time (UTC-4). Applicants must submit their application to SouthSudanCFP.SoudanduSudADP@international.gc.ca [2], following the instructions provided below under “How to Apply”.
