Health Equity Research Grants Program Synopsis

This program aims to support 1-3 year research grants that will support collaborative research projects that seek to advance cancer-related health equity by employing a social determinants of health framework to address the systemic, structural, and institutional factors that sustain health disparities for specific communities of people in Canada.

Through CCS Health Equity Research Grants, research teams will employ collaborative methods to co-design, co-implement and co-evaluate carefully considered approaches to address specific health inequities relevant to cancer prevention, detection, treatment, and/or survivorship. Applications must address a clear health equity need, and be focused on a defined group (with consideration of sub-groups) that is mindful of intersecting determinants of health. For example, First Nations, Inuit and Métis, Black, and other minoritized or racialized groups are not homogenous, and intersect with other determinants of health including gender, sexual orientation, geographical location, education, other ethnicities, and economic status. Therefore, teams should make efforts to address, but be cognizant of, the limitations with respect to application of study results to a specific population.

Proposed projects should ideally address the systemic, structural and/or institutional practices that promote health inequity, but may also pursue provider-level (e.g. point-of-care) and individual (with caution – to avoid assigning blame or perpetuating harms but where supported by team members and other advisors as appropriate) approaches/interventions where relevant. Implications and intended outcomes, as well as dissemination and mobilization of the proposed research must be clearly articulated, with risks and alternative/mitigating approaches described.

3. The project ID will default to HE-22 (the Grant Program code).
4. Enter the full project title into the Title field.
  - The Research Institute field will be auto-populated with your Host Institution once you click in the field. Use the  button to select a different institution if necessary.

Empty Host Institution field

The Host Institution field is auto-populated from information provided in your user profile. If this field is blank, you will need to go back to your profile and add your Host Institution there.

The screenshot shows the 'Application Workbench' interface. On the left, there are navigation panels for 'Programs you've applied to (0)', 'Funding opportunities (5)', and 'Your profile'. The main area displays 'Application workbench' for program 'TRV13-1 Travel Awards 1 - 2013'. A table lists applications with columns for 'Sel.', 'Project ID', 'Title', 'Institution', 'Save', 'Status', 'Delete', 'Errors', and 'App.'. The 'Title' field is empty, and the 'Institution' field contains 'Canadian Cancer Society'. A red arrow points to the 'Title' field with the annotation '1. Enter the full project title'. Another red arrow points to the 'Save' button with the annotation '3. Click the button'. A third red arrow points to the 'Institution' field with the annotation '2. If the Research Institution is different from your Host Institution, use the  button to select the appropriate institution from the lookup box'. Below the table, there are buttons for 'Edit', 'Validate', 'Preview', 'Print', 'Submit', 'Participant Permissions', 'Program Synopsis', 'Program Notes', and 'Show Documents'. A 'Signatories and references' section is also visible with a note: 'NOTE: No sign-off is required at this stage'.

5. Click the Save icon.

Note:

- Each investigator can submit only ONE application as Principal Investigator in this competition.
- Abstract registration is mandatory and will be reviewed for relevance.
- Substantive changes that significantly alter the overall goals and aims of the proposal relative to the Abstract Registration are not permitted.

STEP 2: Complete your abstract registration

I. Access the application

1. Ensure that CCS Health Equity Research Grants - 2022 is selected in the workbench.
  - if not, click the program name on the left under Programs with Applications in progress

2. Click the  button to access the application:

APPENDIX A: Troubleshooting

- Host Institution field is empty or incorrect, and lookup button does not work.

Problem: I am creating my application. The  button in the Host Institution field does not open a lookup box.

Solution: The Host Institution field is auto-populated from information provided in your profile. You will need to update this information in your profile first, then log out of EGrAMS and log back in and create your application.

To update your profile: From the Application workbench, click the  button.

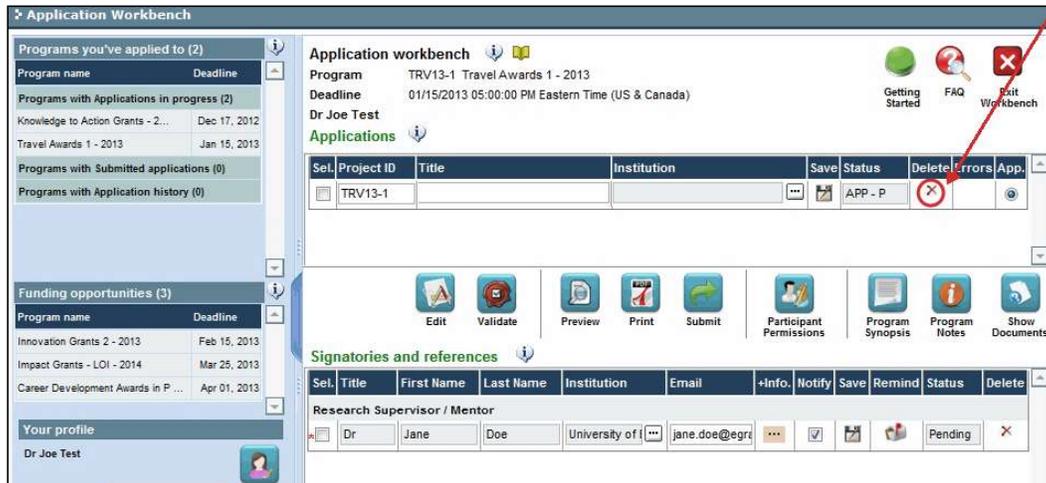

The screenshot displays the 'Application Workbench' interface. On the left sidebar, under 'Your profile', the user 'Dr Joe Test' is listed with an 'Edit' button circled in red. The main content area shows application details for 'TRV13-1 Travel Awards 1 - 2013' with a deadline of '01/15/2013 05:00:00 PM Eastern Time (US & Canada)'. Below this, there are sections for 'Applications' (with a table containing one entry for 'TRV13-1'), 'Signatories and references' (with a table for 'Research Supervisor / Mentor' listing 'Dr Jane Doe'), and 'Your profile' details (Designation: Associate Professor, Host Institution: Canadian Cancer Society, Phone: (604) 555-5555, E-mail: joe.test@egrms.com, Last updated: 11/13/2012 12:57:19 PM). #### IV. Uploading document attachments

1. The system will automatically take the name of the document in the Attachment Title field.
2. Click Browse and locate the document on your computer.

3. Click Save to upload the document as an attachment to your application.

- The File Name path will be cleared, and the paperclip icon will appear in the View column. You can click the paperclip to view the attachment.

V. The rich text editor

Copying and pasting formatted text:

- You can copy and paste text formatted in a Word processor into the form; formatting will be preserved, including special characters inserted using Alt codes.
- The use of Symbol font in your application text is not supported in EGrAMS.
- Copying text from Word for Greek or French characters using this font will result in these special characters being lost (usually converted to some other letter).

You can format your text with the rich text editor within EGrAMS, in the same way you would format text in Microsoft Word.

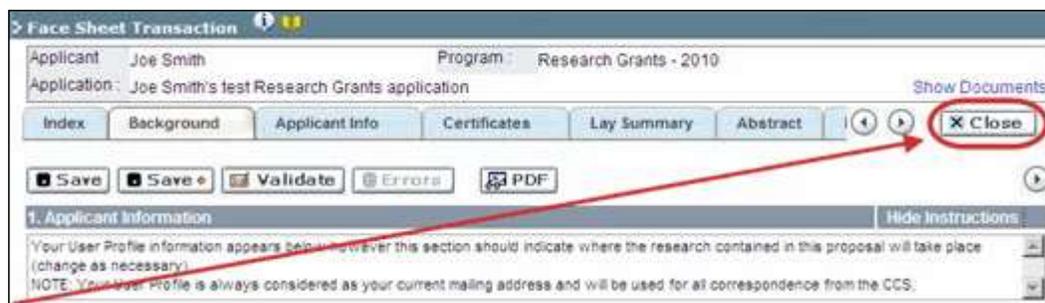

Use the rich text editor to:

- bold, italicize or underline your text
- format footnote markers with superscript
- track the number of characters used in an entry
  - character limitations for each entry are stated in the instructions posted on each page of the application, and/or in this guide
